

Thanks to the Reviewers of Advances in Medical Sciences (2011)

The growing success of Advances in Medical Sciences can be accredited to the work of many people. The Editors of Advances in Medical Sciences would like to thank the many peer reviewers who have spent freely their precious time reviewing the manuscripts for the Journal. Their useful comments improved the quality of the articles, increased the accuracy, readability and the overall scientific standard of the Journal. Thanks to the Reviewers, in 2008 our Journal has been selected for coverage in Thomson Reuters products. We are very grateful to all of the Reviewers, with their significant support, the Journal continues to develop.
